Flat River Community Library
200 W Judd St
Greenville, MI 48838

What is the Flat River Adult Advisory Board and what do members do?

- The Flat River Adult Advisory Board is a volunteer opportunity for adults who are 18 years old or older and are active patrons of the Flat River Community Library. They will assist in the planning of library programs and events as well as suggest materials for the library collection.

What is the time commitment?

- Flat River Adult Advisory Board members attend monthly meetings and other events throughout the year. If they are unable to attend a meeting they will contact the Adult Services & Programming Specialist. Members will attend adult programs that are planned by the Flat River Adult Advisory Board when they are able.

2025 Meeting Schedule

- The first meeting will be on Thursday, July 10, from 6-7:30pm.
- All meetings unless otherwise noted will be on the second Thursday of the month from 6-7:30pm.

What makes an awesome Flat River Adult Advisory Board member?

- The Flat River Community Library is interested in recruiting volunteers who enjoy connecting with the community and want to help other adults discover library services and programs. Members will adhere to the Flat River Advisory Board Code of Ethics.

Code of Ethics

- During all meetings, activities and library functions, members will show respect for other members, library staff, and library patrons.
- Members will demonstrate respect for others by listening attentively when someone else is speaking, asking questions when clarification is needed, and engaging in positive discourse.

- In the extremely rare case that a member is consistently disruptive or disrespectful to others in the group, to staff, or to patrons, the Adult Services & Programming Specialist may dismiss that person from the membership. Every attempt will be made to resolve the situation before removing the member from the group.

What are the advantages of becoming a member?

- Members will actively participate in developing programming for the library!
- Members will receive library swag (including a limited edition shirt)!
- Members will have the first look at new materials including best sellers!

How Do I Apply?

- Fill out this form completely and return it to the Patron Services desk.
